2010	Alvin Ho 	Lenore Look	Alvin, a grade-two student, is allergic to girls, going to school and other scary stuff. He is also well-prepared with his PDK- Personal Disaster Kit for the new school term. Do you want to know how he survives in the school and at home? He is going to tell you how he plays tricks on classmates and even teachers. What a pity! He is a victim and laughed and joked by others. Remember his name – Alvin Ho, a kind and energetic boy. He may be the one sitting next to you or even he tells your own story.	Mr Lai Chi Yuen
2010	Hachiko Waits 	Leslea Newman	It is a book which is both profoundly sad and hopeful at the same time. When the world needs such a story, Hachiko Waits shows us the very best in life: loyalty, devotion, our ability to love, to nurture, to care for someone other than ourselves – all taught by a beloved, intelligent, and heroic dog. The voice and the art are authentically Japanese, though the heart of the book and its meanings cross all cultures.	Miss Lam Siu Yau
2010	Once	Morris Gleitzman	Once I escaped from an orphanage to find Mum and Dad. Once I saved a girl called Zelda from a burning house. Once I made a Nazi with	Miss Ngai Cho Fong toothache laugh.

2010	The Diary of Ma Yan 	Ma Yan	In a drought-stricken corner of rural China, an education can be the difference between a life of crushing poverty and the chance for a better future. But for Ma Yan, money is scarce, and the low wages paid for backbreaking work aren't always enough to pay school fees... or even to provide enough food for herself and her family. Ma Yan's heart-wrenching, honest diary chronicles her struggle to escape hardship through her persistent, sometimes desperate, attempts to continue her schooling. Its publication was an international sensation, creating an outpouring of support for this courageous teenager and others like her... all due to one ordinary girl's extraordinary diary.	Miss Ngai Cho Fong
2010	FANTASTIC MR FOX	Roald Dahl	In the hole lived Mr. Fox and Mrs. Fox and their four small Foxes. Mr. Fox needed to feed his family so he was always stealing chickens, ducks and geese from the three farms close by. The three farmers hated the fox and were determined to catch him	Mr. Stephen Whittaker

			and kill him and his family. So Mr. Fox and his family are now in danger and Mr. Fox has to save them. “How will they kill us, mummy?...Will they use dogs?” Mrs. Fox began to cry. Then Mr. Fox looked at his four small children...and said...I have an idea =] This wonderful story is about how Mr. Fox cleverly manages to save his family from death. It is a simple but touching story – It is easy to read and yet it is NOT childish. If you want a story that will make you laugh sometimes and make you cry at other times but keep you excited all the time, then ‘The Fantastic Mr. Fox’ is the book for you.
2010	Leonardo da Vinci 	Mary Pope Osborne	For junior students who like Science, Art, History or just love finding things out. This is a non fiction book but reader friendly. Leonardo da Vinci was one of the most amazing men to ever live. He was a genius. Even though he lived over 500 years ago, his ideas have an influence today. He was an amazing thinker and creator at a time when life was not easy. There were no phones, computers, cars, televisions and even electricity. This little book is full of drawings and pictures and simple explanations of his amazing life and discoveries. This book is a research guide-book - that means it guides you	Mr. Stephen Whittaker through as you read, by explaining difficult words and giving simple definitions.

2010	The Chocolate War 	Robert Cormier	Jerry Renault is pondering the question on the poster in his locker: Do I dare disturb the universe? Refusing to sell chocolates in the annual Trinity School fundraiser may not seem like a radical thing to do. But when Jerry challenges a secret school society called The Vigils, his defiant act turns into an all-out war. Now the only question is: Who will survive?
2010	An Inconvenient Truth- Al Gore 	Al Gore	We are facing a climate crisis, one that may seem to be happening slowly but is actually happening very quickly. If we don't recognize that this is a real crisis and take action, then the consequences will only get worse. The threat of extinction to endangered species such as polar bears would increase. Water levels could rise so much that millions of people would be permanently flooded out of their homes. More powerful and destructive storms would happen frequently. And that's just the beginning of how the Earth could change forever. But the good news is we have knowledge and the ability to solve this crisis. The choice to put a stop to global warming is ours.	Miss Lo Yuen Ling
2010	The Tale of Despereaux	Jamie Michalak	Meet Roscuro, a rat who used to sail the seas. While visiting the Kingdom of Dor, he accidentally frightened the queen and was

Enter Despereaux, a very small mouse with exceptionally large ears. He doesn't follow the mouse rules: he doesn't cower and won't scurry. He isn't even afraid of mousetraps. Indeed, stealing cheese from them is his favorite sport. And instead of eating books, like the other mice, he reads them!
2010	Enchanted  Disney ENCHANTED	Disney	Happily ever after.....with a twist! Giselle believes that fairy tales do come true....after all, she lives in the magical world of Andalasia. So when she finds herself dropped – quite literally – into the arms of the dashing and handsome Prince Edward, Giselle is convinced that she is only moments away from her perfect ending. Then Giselle takes a tumble down a well and lands on the mean streets of Manhattan. With reality setting in, her dreams of happily ever after seem very far away – until she meets a cynical lawyer and, together, they discover that the real world can be magical, too.	Mr Lai Chung Hau
2010	The Pact	Jodi Picoult	Until the phone calls came at three o'clock on a November morning, the Golds and their neighbours, the Hartes, had been inseparable. It was no surprise to anyone when their teenage children, Chris and Emily, began showing signs that their relationship was moving beyond that of lifelong friends. But now	Miss Tse Yuen Ting

			seventeen-year-old Emily is dead – shot with a gun her beloved and devoted Chris pilfered from his father’s cabinet as part of an apparent suicide pact – leaving two devastated families stranded in the dark and dense predawn, desperate for answers about an unthinkable act and the children they never really knew.
2010	Coraline 	Neil Gaiman	When CORALINE explores her new home, she steps through a door and into another house just like her own... except that it’s different. It’s a marvelous adventure until Coraline discovers that there’s also another mother and another father in the house. They want Coraline to stay with them and be their little girl. They want to keep her forever! Coraline must use all of her wits and every ounce of courage in order to save herself and return home.	Miss Fung Hiu Ling
2010	Magic Tree: Ghosts	Mary Pope Osborne	It’s a NEW kind of adventure for Jack and Annie! Join them as they research ghosts and find out the facts behind the fiction!	Miss Cheng Mei Yee

2010	Mrs. Yonkers is Bonkers – My Weird School 	Dam Gutman	Mrs. Yonkers, the computer teacher, is the nerdiest teacher in the history of the world. She can type with her feet! She buys foam cheeseheads off eBay! She even puts a webcam on a turtle! Is she trying to take over the world?	Miss Hou Nim Hang
2010	Mao's Last Dancer 	Li Cunxin	'My dear son' this is your lucky chance to escape from the cruel world! Go, go and do something special with your life! In a desperately poor village in north-east China, a small boy is randomly chosen to study ballet at the Beijing Dance Academy. Scared and lonely, Li hates the strict training routines and the strange place he is sent to, yet he's determined to succeed. With enormous self-discipline and hard work, Li strives to reach his goal and become a world-famous ballet star.	Miss Kwok Lai Kwan

2010	Diary of Wimpy Kid 	Jeff Kinney	As Greg enters the new school year, he's eager to put the past three months behind ... and one event in particular. Unfortunately for Greg, his older brother, Rodrick, knows all about the incident Greg wants to keep under wraps. But secrets have a way of getting out... especially when a diary is involved.	Miss Yim Lai Man
2010	Diary of Wimpy Kid 	Jeff Kinney	Frank Heffley actually thinks he can get his son to toughen up, and he enlists Greg in organized sports and other "manly" endeavors. Of course, Greg is easily able to sidestep his father's efforts to change him. But when Greg's dad threatens to send him to military academy, Greg realizes he has to shape up ... or get shipped out.	Miss Yim Lai Man
2010	Chicken Soup for the Teenage Soul	Jack Canfield	The good news about tackling challenges is that you end up stronger and smarter once you reach the other side. These stories are from teenagers just like you who have gone through many of the same problems and survived. Whether it's standing up to the mean girl in the cafeteria or staying true to yourself under peer pressure, Chicken Soul: The Real Deal Challenges tells you the absolute true about what it means to be a teen.	Mr Leung King Hang

Year	Book Title	Author	Recommendation	Recommended by
2012	Never Let Me Go 	Kazuo Ishiguro	Never Let Me Go is a book that explicitly dwells on a controversial ethical issue but subtly tap into another question of whether life is a rational sum of maximization. Despite the varying constraints, challenges and uncertainties we face, the decision-making tokens are still in our hands. Our fate is not the party to be blamed. The Japanese writer, Kazuo Ishiguro, tactfully leaves his readers in the dark in the first half of the book, just as what the main characters are enduring. In Kathy H's retrospection of her childhood with Tommy and Ruth, queries constantly arise and along with the trio, readers experience the main characters' thirst of 'truth' in Hailsham, disillusionment of a false hope, as well as rebellious rage towards the cruel reality. Readers will be taking different messages away from the inspiring story.	Miss Chan Nga Ying
2012	Shopaholic Takes Manhattan	Sophie Kinsella	In this sequel to Kinsella's bestselling Confessions of a Shopaholic, Becky Bloomwood, a personal finance "expert" with her own TV show, is more of a financial mess than ever: she can't stop shopping, even though she can't afford anything. She's even assigned her flatmate, Suze, to monitor her spending, but to no avail: Becky is full of cute rationalizations, like "Foreign money doesn't count, so you can spend as much as you like," and can't	Miss Fung Hiu Ling stop herself from sneaking into posh boutiques. Her work-obsessed boyfriend, Luke, runs a financial PR agency, and when he gets the green light to open an office in New York City, he brings Becky along. Upon her arrival in the Big Apple, she euphorically discovers Barney's, Saks, Sephora and sample sales but when wind of her shopping excesses gets back to the British press, she loses both her relationship and her TV job. Becky manages to save the day in predictably winning fashion, with plenty of comic moments along the way. Sure, it's tongue-in-cheek and all in good fun but will the barrage of shopping hijinks be enough to hold readers this time around? Kinsella creates some winning characters, but the credit card and shopping bag action is wearing dangerously thin.

2012	Unknown 	Didier, Van Cauwelaert	Martin Harris returns home after spending three days in a coma, to find that his wife doesn't recognize him and another man is living in his house under his name. The imposter shares all of Martin's memories, experiences, and knowledge down to the last detail. Is it conspiracy? Amnesia? An elaborate hoax or his own paranoid delusion? Part moral fable, part thriller, Unknown is a fast-paced tale of one man's desperate attempt to reclaim his existence – even at the cost of his own life.	Mr. Lai Chi Yuen
2012	Emotional Intelligence	Linda Wasmer Andrews	A quote from a very famous Greek philosopher, Aristotle: "Anybody can become angry – that is easy, but to be angry with the right person and to the right degree and at the right time and	Mr. Lai Chung Hau

			for the right purpose, and in the right way – that is not within everybody’s power and is not easy.” Have you ever imagined being angry is an art? Have you ever thought that pleasant feelings have to be managed as well? After reading the book, you will be more aware of your emotion and help you form a more sophisticated character. Meanwhile, it helps you to read what someone else may be feeling.
2012	Miral 	Rula Jebreal	This book is based on a true story happened in 1948 after Arab-Israeli War. There was a very generous woman called Hind, who found 55 abandoned children and dedicated her life to establish an orphanage in Jerusalem to provide the children with food, shelter, love and education. She strongly believed peace can only be achieved through education. A girl called Miral was sent to this orphanage by her father when she was five. At her age of 15, Miral was assigned to teach at a refugee camp where she was awakened to the reality of the Palestinian refugees. Then, she started taking part in the violent struggle for Palestinian Independence with her lover Hani who is also a political activist. Could Miral succeed?	Miss Hou Nim Hang
2012	Megamind	Lauren Alexander	Megamind and Metro Man: It’s the same old story. Megamind tries to conquer Metro City and Metro Man stops him. This all changes when Megamind accidentally kills Metro Man. But what fun is there in being a bad guy without a good guy to battle? Megamind	Miss Kwok Lai Kwan comes up with a plan – he will create a new hero for Metro City: Tighthen. But when Tighthen begins to destroy Metro City, Megamind must make a choice: Will he let Tighthen run wild or will he become the best hero Metro City has ever seen? Fans can relive the fun and adventure with eight pages of full-color photos!

2013 Recommended English book titles
2013	3096 Days 	Natascha Kampusch	Torture, sufferings...No one bears the pain like what Natascha did. No one can imagine how a girl was kidnapped and kept for eight years...incredible! In her diary, she wrote 'It is time to pour my heart out completely without reservation about the pain that I have come to know. I no longer know how it all was, but the things that happened were not very nice. At times he wasn't doing very well, and when he isn't doing very well, he makes my life hell. Uncontrolled, unpredictable, excessively sudden outbursts of rage...Screaming, insults, pushing me while climbing the stairs. Choking, sitting me and holding my mouth and nose closed, suffocating me.'	Mr Lai Chi Yuen
2013	Life of Pi		Have you got the idea of the title of my recommendation today? I bet you did. Yes, it's the Life of Pi. The book is divided into 3 parts. The first part is his childhood and the description of his daddy's zoo in India. The second part is his 227 days sea journey with the Bengal Tiger	Miss Lam Siu Yau

			Richard Parker because of the sinking of the ship. And in the last part, two officials from the Japan asks Pi to investigate the ship wreck. Like the bestselling series, Harry Potter, the Life of Pi was rejected by 5 publishers before being accepted. Once it was published, it received different prizes from various countries like UK, France and South Africa. This is the book you can discover a life of adventure, a life of hope and triumph.
2013	Big Nate 		For junior form students, I also have a recommendation for you. That is Big Nate. It is an American comic book. The main character Big Nate is a small primary kid. He is rebellious with little interest in studies and he always challenges the school rules. Because of this, it is not surprising that he is no stranger to the detention class, being kept at school by teachers all the time. The comic book is very popular. Here are some reviews from the readers: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. My 12 yr old son loves this series of books! He'll sit and read this for hours! Great for this age group 2. Once again big nate is amazing. I really enjoy these books. It is hilarious. 	Miss Lam Siu Yau

			3. Big fun. I love Big Nate I have six books and I never get tired of them . BIG NATE ROCKS!!!! With Diary of a Wimpy Kid and Molly Moon are the most awesome books. Wimpy Kid has been the top sale once it appeared in our Book Fair. If you love Wimpy Kid, Big Nate is definitely your choice too. Don't miss the 'Life of Pi and Big Nate' in the Book Fair
2013	Miss Child Has Gone Wild 	Dan Gutman	Want to speak some genuine daily English – live and lively? Want to know how to be 'cool' and not 'weird'? Want to babysit or dogsit? This is the book for you. It brings back memories of Primary school life... 'Who invented school?' AJ asks. He learns much more by watching TV and playing video games. I think so, too! Have you got classmates who are always jealous at other's success? Or look smart and make others think they know-it-all? Why are girls 'yucky'? Who welcome the Cleanest Classroom in the School Contest? Read the book and see why Miss Child goes mad.	Miss Lo Yuen Ling

2013	One Dog and His Boy 	Eva Ibbotson	Hal comes from a very rich family. His mum is ready to give him anything expensive for his birthday, except the one that Hal asks for- a dog. His father rents a dog for the weekend and hopes that Hal will get tired of the dog. Hal broke most of his hi-tech gifts anyway. When Hal learns that Fleck, the puppy, is not a company for life, he decides to kidnap Fleck from the Dog Agency. He is going to stay with his grandparents whom are not rich but understand his needs. The adventure starts as 4 other dogs wish to have a true companion like Fleck. In the end, Hal walks miles and miles to meet his grandparents with these dogs. Will Hal's parents change their mind and keep the dog? Will the other dogs get a lifelong companion as well? Read and find out yourself.	Miss Lo Yuen Ling
2013	Ripley's Believe It Or Not	Scholastic book series	It is a collection of unbelievable-but-true animal tales. Boring with long paragraphs? You are here with a book with crazy cartoons, silly stories and fantastic facts. e.g. a donkey cashes a cheque with his hoof-mark; 3 little pigs live with a tiger in a cage... Read and find out more.	Miss Lo Yuen Ling
2013	Who was Albert	Jess Brallier	A scientist who worked hard, TV was then invented because of him.	Miss Lo Yuen Ling

	Einstein?		What else did he work on? Atomic Bomb! Was he a good student at school? No! He was expelled from school! Here is the advice from him: If A=Success Then A=X+Y+Z X=work Y=play Z=keeping your mouth shut What else? Read it yourself!
2013	Mr Stink 	David Walliams	Mr. Stink is unlike any ordinary man. Mr. Stink has never ever taken a shower and he is a tramp. If you meet this man, run as quickly as possible because a tiny sniff of his odor can make your eyes watery and nose wrinkled. He is very smart and wise as well. Most important of all, despite his smells, he is very kind and helpful to his friends. He has recently met a young girl called Chloe, and became friends. The two have a lot in common as both are incredibly lonely. Chloe is fed up of her boring lifestyle and decides to move Mr. Stink into the family's	Mr Lee Chun Lam garden shed. However, you can probably imagine, moving Mr. Stink to your house and having your conservative parents find out about it would be quite a disaster! This obviously does not go down too well with her Conservative MP running Mother, who would rather ban tramps from her streets.

2013	Alvin Ho Allergic to Girls, School, and Other Scary Things 	Lenore Look	Alvin Ho is an American Chinese. He is afraid of everything: the dark, wasabi, elevators, tunnels, kimchi, girls and most of all, school. He's so afraid of school that, while he's there, he never, ever says a word. But at home he's a very loud superhero named Firecracker man, a brother to Calvin and Anibelly, and a gentleman-in-training, so he can be just like his dad.	Miss Ngai Cho Fong
2013	Clarice Bean: Don't Look Now 	Laureh Child	Clarice Bean is studying in a junior school. She has a lot of worries. Some simple ones – like largish spiders and if one could live off toast alone – and some big ones like change, infinity, and the meaning of life. She writes all of her worries down and tries to prepare for them like her hero Ruby Redfort, using Ruby's "Survival Handbook" to help. It is a delight and a great read for all kids, specifically for you.	Miss Ngai Cho Fong

2014	Wonder 	R.J. Palacio	I won't describe what I look like. Whatever you're thinking, it's probably worse. August (Auggie) Pullman was born with a facial deformity that prevented him from going to a mainstream school – until now. He's about to start 5th grade at Beecher Prep. And if you've ever been the new kid then you know how hard that can be. The thing is Auggie's just an ordinary kid, with an extraordinary face. But can he convince his new classmates that he's just like them, despite appearances? R.J. Palacio has written a spare, warm, uplifting story that will have readers laughing one minute and wiping away tears the next. With wonderfully realistic family interactions (flawed, but loving), lively school scenes, and short chapters, Wonder is accessible to readers of all levels.	Miss Cheng Mei Yee
2014	What money can't buy?	Micahel J. Sandel	Should we pay children to read books or to get good grades? Is it ethical to pay people to test risky new drugs or to donate their organs? What about hiring mercenaries to fight our wars, outsourcing inmates to for-profit prisons, auctioning admission to elite universities, or selling citizenship to immigrants willing to pay? Isn't there something wrong with a world in which everything is for sale? In recent decades, market values have crowded out nonmarket norms	Miss Fung Hiu Ling

			in almost every aspect of life-medicine, education, government, law, art, sports, even family life and personal relations. Without quite realizing it, Sandel argues, we have drifted from having a market economy to being a market society. In What Money Can't Buy, Sandel examines one of the biggest ethical questions of our time and provokes a debate that's been missing in our market-driven age: What is the proper role of markets in a democratic society, and how can we protect the moral and civic goods that markets do not honour and money cannot buy? What are your priorities in life? Money? Fame? Relationship? Love? Justice? Integrity? I highly recommend this book to students who are studying the elective of ERS and Economics. If you are interested in what this Harvard professor discusses about money and morality, you should buy this book, 'What money can't buy?'
2014	Being Happy		Difficulties will puzzle us and sometimes make us feel depressed. But unfortunately, we often have to live with these undesirable situations, then how can we deal with them? My suggestion is to read the book called "Being Happy". This book suggests different ways on how to stay optimistic when facing difficulties, and it also teaches us we need to understand ourselves, being able to forgive ourselves and others in order to pursue happiness. If you want to explore different ways to live	Miss Hou Nim Hang

			more happily and meaningfully, you MUST buy this book “Being Happy” at the Book Fair!
2014	Stress Can Really Get on Your Nerves! 		If you <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - worry about the exam, - want to skip school, - can't sleep well, - have bad dreams, ..... then you must read this book to REDUCE YOUR STRESS	Miss Kwok Lai Kwan
2014	Before I go to sleep	S. J. Watson	Before I go to sleep is the first novel by S. J. Watson published in 2011. The main character, Christine Lucas, is 47. She has a bad accident about 20 years ago and from then on having problems remembering things. Throughout the past 20 years, every day when she wakes up in the morning, she forgets what happens the day before. The story begins when she opens her eyes, finding herself sleeping	Mr Lai Chung Hau

			with a stranger, Ben, who claims himself as his husband. She has no choice but to believe in him until she receives a phone call from Dr. Nash, a neuropsychologist, telling her that she is receiving a treatment for memory loss and has been keeping a journal. On the first page of the journal, it reads “DON’T TRUST BEN.” Who should Christine rely on? Who is she? Is Ben really her husband? Is Dr. Nash reliable? Who can be trusted? What is her history? Does she have a son? Can she remember what had happened in the end?
2014	Who is Bill Gates? 	Patricia Brennan	Do you know some interesting facts about Bill Gates? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Reading the book written by Patricia Brennan, you are able to know more about Bill Gates, the information technology giant in the world. In this book, we can learn of Gates' childhood passion for computer technology, which led him to revolutionize personal computers. Through the success of his now-world – famous software company, Microsoft, Bill Gates became one of the wealthiest donors, in history. He promised his wife once, that he would give 95 percent of his fortune away. He thought, “With great wealth comes great responsibility – a responsibility to give back to society”. I highly recommend this book to everybody. Buy this book and hop into a time travelling machine. It can bring you back in time so you can witness his life as a little boy. See how he grew up to become a successful man he is now!
2014	Glee Summer Break		Not losing its momentum in the summer break, the Glee club members all look forward a busy break running a singing workshop for children. However, in Rachel's mind, she has already made her own summer plan. That is to join a dance class with Finn. However, this young and charming girl is refused by his friend and laughed at by the boys around. What happens? She gets in mad and storms out. She	Mr Lai Chi Yuen

			decides to turn down the singing workshop. A miracle? She has a fantasy and finds everything around her is different. She becomes a famous Broadway singer. Much to her surprise, she encounters her friends in the fantasy. Guess what happens to her when she wakes up? I think a few types of people will be the owners for this book. If you are a little kid full of hopes and dreams, if you like playing jokes and calling names on others...oh I shouldn't mention those mischievous behaviors, possibly if you are a fan of Glee, if you are a young and energetic person or if you simply want to share your feeling after reading the book with Leo Lai, you surely should not miss the chance to read the book in our book fair.
2014	Steve Jobs – thinking differently	Patricia Lakin	Best known as the “Apple Godfather”, Jobs was one of the founders of Apple Computers Inc. Although he died a year ago, many people still admire him as their role model because of the many revolutionary products that he brought to the world. Though he’s now seen as one of the most successful business leaders in history, Jobs did not do quite well in school. In fact, he quit university and went to study creative courses instead. Upon graduation, Jobs is far more ambitious than inventing the	Mr. Lam Kam Cheong

2014			Diet is "die" with a "t." I'm not over-weight, I'm under-tall. Eat every meal as though it were your last. If you want to look thinner, hang around people fatter than you. Can you guess this character? Bingo! It's Garfield. I suppose many of you have read it. This fat and lazy cat is spoiled by his master. He does nothing but eating all the time. I love the comics because they are full of humour especially the US kind of humour. It is so relaxing after a day of busy work. The second comics I am going to talk about is Smurf, a Belgian Comic. There are more than one hundred Smurfs, whose names are based on adjectives that emphasize their characteristics, e.g. "Jokey Smurf", 'Clumsy Smurf'. Papa Smurf, is the wisest leader of the smurfs.	Miss Lam Siu Yau

			It attracts the attention all over the world may be contribute to the characters of everyday people, like Lazy Smurf, Grouchy Smurf, Brainy Smurf and Greedy Smurf. Comics actually are not restricted to funny stories. There are also some classical ones. There is a series of classical comics in our Book Fair. The pictures enhance your comprehension but at the same time you can pick up good English. If you want to start reading the classics like A Christmas Carol, Romeo and Juliet and even the great works from Shakespeare in a less demanding way, try this series The last series of book I would like to introduce is non-fiction, the “Who is / was’ series. It includes a lot of famous people of the past and present like famous writer, Roald Dahl, JK Rowling, musician like Mozart, American President Obama and his wife.
2014	A Dog’s Purpose	W. Bruce Cameron	It is a book for humans. If you have a pet and you really love it, you should read this book. I picked up this book because I saw a black	Miss Lo Yuen Ling

			Labrador looking up thinking. I was attracted by the cover of the book. I was also attracted by the title: A dog's purpose. 'Why am I here?' 'What's the purpose of my being born in this world?' I would also like to know the answer. The dog in this book searches for the answer too. It has a lot of amazing encounters through reborn again and again. It finally gets the answer and tells us that love never dies and our true friends are always with us. Be prepared to laugh and cry while you read. It is a book you should not miss.
2014	The Umbrella Man and other short stories	Roald Dahl	I like short stories because I can pick up a book and finish a story in no time. When I am bored, I can read another story another time. The first story I read was 'The Great Automatic Grammatizator'. It is about a computer genius built a computer that write stories. It is not 'copy and paste' from the internet. It is a computer that creates different new stories. Would you also want one for your essay writing assignments? I do. The other story I would like to introduce is 'The Umbrella Man'. It tells how a man gets money by selling umbrellas in rainy days. But those are not his umbrella! How can he get so many umbrellas? Read and you will see how people can play tricks in life and you must not copy, but be aware of them.

			The last story I would recommend is 'The way to Heaven'. It is a story about a couple Mr. and Mrs. Foster. Mr. Foster knows that Mrs. Foster is always worried about being late and he often does silly things to make her late again. At last she was free. Why? Where is Mr. Foster? He is in heaven. But Mrs. Foster insists writing him a letter every week. Why does Mrs. Foster know that Mr. Foster will not meet her at the airport after her journey to Paris? How can the elevator take Mr. Foster to heaven? It is not a children book. Be prepared to meet murder and crime with the characters.
2014	Goodnight Mister Tom 	Michelle Magorian	This book stars William Beech also known as Willie, and Mr Tom Oakley, an elderly citizen of Little Weirworld, a small town in England. Set in the time of World War Two, it is incredibly different to how we live today. Willie is evacuated from London to live with Mr Tom. After only a month, Mr Tom has become quite fond of Willie, who has changed from being small, timid, and sickly, into a sturdy boy full of energy. When Mr Tom starts feeding him he becomes stronger and is so much happier, and when he starts school he starts to make loads of friends. Mr Tom at the same time also softens into a kind man who spends more time in the town and is liked by all. I think this is a great book because it is so well written, with a lot of description, and although not a lot of important events happen at the beginning, you find yourself reading on, especially at the end when	Miss Ngai Cho Fong

2014	The Book Thief 	Markus Zusak	Narrated by Death, the book is set in Nazi Germany, a place and time when the narrator notes he was extremely busy. It describes a young girl's relationship with her foster parents, the other residents of their neighborhood, and a young Jewish man who hides in her home during the escalation of World War II. First published in 2005, the book has won numerous awards and was listed on The New York Times Best Seller list for over 230 weeks. Liesel Meminger is traveling on a train with her mother and younger brother when her brother dies. At his burial she picks up a book that has been dropped by his graveside. When Hans, her stepfather, realizes that Liesel cannot read, he begins to teach her, using the book that she took from the graveside. Liesel becomes obsessed with reading anything she can get her hands on. At a Nazi book burning ceremony, Liesel and Rudy, her neighbor and best friend are bullied into throwing books onto the bonfire, but Liesel is upset at all the books being burned. When the bonfire ends and everyone but she has left, she grabs a book that has not been burned. Later, Liesel even "borrow" books from the mayor's library by climbing	Miss Ngai Cho Fong

2015	What the Dog Saw and other adventures 	Malcolm Gladwell	This is honestly a non-fiction for adults but this is also a book for those people who like thinking critically. The writer Malcolm Gladwell initiates topics ranging from criminology to ketchup, job interviews to dog training and every chapter contains an incredible story. One chapter begins with a football team. By comparing two football players, the writer Gladwell discusses how we choose a suitable candidate in a job interview. 'What the Dog Saw' is the title of the book and it is also one single chapter, with 21 more chapters covering different topics. The book 'What the Dog Saw' is really a good choice for preparing yourself to the future hurdles.	Mr Lai Chi Yuen
2015	Once  	Morris Gleitzman	Then and Now are the sequels of Once. He soon encountered Zelda, a brave little girl and experienced an extraordinary adventure. Now is the third publication written in the angle of Felix's grandchild.	Mr Lai Chi Yuen

2015	The Happiness Project 	Gretchen Rubin	Are you as happy as you could be? This was the first question I asked myself when I saw and bought this book – The Happiness Project by Gretchen Rubin. Her Happiness Project in general was a large undertaking but it seemed like so much fun as well which is easily able to get across to the reader. There are many timeless maxims, catchy lists and simple truths. She tried out a lot of helpful ideas and tips inspired by a number of scientific researches. She encourages readers to adapt these to fit their own situation and needs. What about teenagers in other countries? The book, The Promise of a Pencil, may give your some answers. The writer Adam Braun, the founder of Pencils of Promise was inspired by a simple response by an Indian young boy. He simply asked the boy what he wants and surprisingly, the boy responds he wants a piece of pencil. One interesting thing is that he found the organization, Pencils of Promise with 25 dollars. But guess what? He has now built more than 250 schools around the world. In the book, The Promise of a Pencil, Adam not only describes his journey but also explains one clear step that every person can take to turn their biggest ambitions into reality.	Mr Lai Chi Yuen

2016	Gone Girl 		Gone Girl is a thriller novel by American writer Gillian Flynn. The novel's principal suspense comes from uncertainty about the main character, Nick, and whether he is involved in the disappearance of his wife, Amy. Gone Girl tells the story of Nick and Amy's difficult marriage. The first half of the book is told in first person, alternately, by both Nick and Amy. Nick's perspective is from the present whereas Amy's from the past by way of journal entries. However, what Nick wrote and Amy wrote are totally different. Amy's account of their marriage made her seem happier and easier to live with than Nick depicts. On the other hand, Nick's story described her as extremely anti-social and stubborn. Amy's depiction made Nick seem more aggressive than he said he was in his story. In the story, Nick lost his job as a journalist due to downsizing, and Amy lost her job as a magazine quiz writer shortly after. The couple relocated from New York City to his small hometown, so they could help take care of his dying mother. He then opened a bar using the last of his wife's trust fund and ran it with his twin sister, Margo. But the marriage became even more dysfunctional.	Mr Lai Chung Hau

		On their fifth wedding anniversary, Amy went missing suddenly. Over time, Nick became a prime suspect in her disappearance. Why? Why did Nick kill Amy? There are various reasons: he used her money to start a business, increased her life insurance, and seemed unemotional, at times even smiling inappropriately, on camera and in the news. Later, the police found boxes of violent pornography and other items he had denied purchasing in the woodshed in Margo's garden, further implicating that Nick was the person who killed Amy. It is also revealed that Amy was pregnant. Nick couldn't help but hire a lawyer who specialised in defending men accused of killing their wives. In the novel's second half, the reader learns that Amy and Nick are both unreliable narrators. The reader has not been given all of the information. Nick indeed had been having an affair with one of his college students named Andie, and Amy is alive and hiding, trying to frame Nick for her "death". Her diary is revealed to be fake, intended to implicate Nick to the police. Nick soon discovered that Amy was framing him but had no way of proving it. Together, Nick, Margo, and his lawyer work to find ways to change the police and public perception of Nick. So, in the end, who made Amy disappear? Can Nick prove himself

2016	The Girl on the Train 		When you want to go to Kowloon, do you prefer to take a bus or the West Rail? I prefer taking a bus because I like to look outside the scenery along Tuen Mun Highway is really beautiful. The character of the book The Girl of the Train, Rachel has the same habit as me. She took her train to London every day. She appreciated the scenery along the rail. Rachel especially likes to look at a house in which is a home of a couple, Megan and her husband. She thought that they were sweet. However, things are not as simple as Rachel imagines. The couple actually is having a difficult situation and later the wife Megan is murdered. There were 2 suspects, Scott, Megan’s husband and Megan’s therapist. Rachel started the investigation and she found out that the murderer is neither of them but another person who she knows and that puts her in a very dangerous situation. The Girl on the Train is a thriller like the Gone Girl introduced by Mr. Lai. We call these sayings ‘proverbs’. It’s good to know the really common English proverbs because you hear them come up in conversation all the time. Sometimes people say the entire proverb to give advice or words of encouragement to a friend. In An Apple A Day the writer, Caroline Taggart explores the truth of our favourite proverbs & their history. Do you know the proverb ‘slow and steady wins the race’? It means that gradual but continuous progress is the best way to succeed. It is used to encourage patience and persistence. So how can you use it to build your own sentence? For example, you may write it as ‘Ms Cheng think I am spending too much time on this essay but slow and steady wins the race.’ In this book An Apple A Day, the writer also tells us the origin of the proverbs. For example, the proverb ‘slow but steady wins the race’ is the moral of Aesop’s fable about the race between a tortoise and a hare. The hare stopped to nap	Miss Cheng Mei Yee

2017	Dying to Be Me 	Anita Moorjani	This New York Times best-seller is a must-read for anyone affected by cancer. It tells the story of Anita Moorjani, a stage 4 cancer survivor of Indian origin, who has lived in Hong Kong for more than 50 years. Her autobiography starts with an easy-to-read diary style narrative. Anita takes us through her childhood years in Hong Kong when became scared of Indian scriptures about karma at home and terrified of the Bible's teachings of hell at school. Most humorous of all are her descriptions of being afraid of local customs about ancestors. Without any hint of judgement, she describes how living in between cultures, she was always left feeling guilty or fearful. Having got to know Anita, we are ready for her highly personal sharing	Miss CAPEL Sarah Katharine Jean

			of her near death experience, during which she had a major realization that God wanted her to love herself as well as her neighbours. After releasing her fears, she woke up to find that her cancer of four years had disappeared without a trace. Could this be a life-changing book? It's up to you to decide.
2017	It's a Wonderful Word 	Albert Jack	The Real Origins of Our Favourite Words, from Anorak to Zombie by Albert Jack This book is for anyone who not only wants to learn English but love English. What a Wonderful Word explores the history of some of the strangest words in the English language, from anorak to zombie. One example that you are sure to know is 'quiz'. Apparently it is from 1780s Dublin, Ireland where a theatre director made a bet that he could invent a word that had no meaning and make it become part of the English language. He went around Dublin writing the letters QUIZ on the walls and doors of the city with chalk. The word became the talk of the town as local newspapers tried to figure out the meaning of the letters. Before long, it became connected with finding answers to questions. The book is humorous with funny pictures which can help make you more curious about English vocabulary. Who knows, maybe you will	Miss CAPEL Sarah Katharine Jean

	Mistakes that worked The World's Familiar Inventions and How	by Charlotte Foltz Jones	Mistakes that worked is a fun-filled book with everyday items that had surprisingly usual tales. The coverage of the book is splendid, both informative and entertaining.	Mr Lai Chi Yuen

	They Came to be 		One impressive example is Cinderella’s glass slippers, in which the author Charles Perrault misspelt the word ‘fur’ in French to ‘glass’ and therefore Cinderella has had to wear glass slippers ever since. Other everyday examples include the making of cheese, coca cola, ice cream cone and potato chips. The author Charlotte Foltz Jones concludes intelligence is not to make no mistakes but quickly to see how to make them good.
